Dear Academia Cesar Chavez Family and Community,

We are reaching out to you in a time of continued sadness, suffering, tragedy, and outrage.

Academia Cesar Chavez (ACC) joins you in grieving the lost lives of Daunte Wright, George Floyd, and most recently, Adam Toledo, a 13-year-old Latino killed by police in Chicago.

For many of you, especially those identifying as Black, Afro-Latinx, Latinx, Indigenous, and Asian these killings continue to add pain and trauma during an already challenging time.

We know the impact this is having on our beautiful children here at Academia Cesar Chavez. We are doing our best to support them and allow them a safe place to process their feelings. ACC staff are providing age appropriate conversations with our children and continue to provide a safe, loving, and nurturing learning environment for them grounded in social justice.

ACC, guided by our mission, and named after Cesar Chavez, will continue to support the peaceful protest and offer support and healing to our community and our families. We need to lean on each other now more than ever.

Estimados amigos y comunidad de Academia Cesar Chavez,

Nos acercamos a ustedes en un momento de tristeza, sufrimiento, tragedia e indignación constantes.

Academia César Chávez (ACC) se une a usted y a nuestra comunidad para lamentar la vida de Daunte Wright, George Floyd y Adam Toledo, un latino de 13 años asesinado en Chicago.

Para muchas personas, especialmente los que se identifican como morenos, latinos, indígenas y personas de color, estos asesinatos siguen añadiendo más dolor y trauma, lo cual es demasiado para soportar un momento que ya es más que difícil.

Sabemos el impacto que esto está teniendo en nuestros hermosos niños aquí en la Academia César Chávez. Así que estamos haciendo todo lo posible para apoyarlos y permitirles un lugar seguro para procesar sus sentimientos. El personal de ACC es capaz de tener conversaciones apropiadas para la edad de nuestros niños, y continuar proporcionando un ambiente de aprendizaje seguro y amoroso para ellos.

ACC guiada por nuestra misión, y que lleva el nombre de Cesar Chavez continuará apoyando la protesta pacífica, y ofreciendo apoyo y curación a nuestra comunidad y nuestras familias. Necesitamos apoyarnos unos a otros más que nunca.

Si Se Puede!
