"My, What Tasty Hands You Have"
Week I	" My dad was born and raised in Kabul, the capital city of Afghanistan. Oh, what an amazing and funny storyteller he was! Many a times, he would be laughing so hard during his story telling, it would took forever to get the story out. One of the things, I loved hearing my dad say was, "My, what tasty hands you have". He was an outstanding chef. He could pretty much make 'sticks and stone' soup and it would be delicious to the last drop. I have always loved to cook for my dad, watch him take that first taste and tell me what tasty hands I have. He was very honest and I loved getting that treasured compliment. One of my recipes, which my dad loved, is a Curried Mango Chicken Salad. It is simple and delicious and can be served many ways! " - Chef Nancy
